Happy Easter

Valentine's Day is a holiday that people celebrate on February 14. It is also called Saint Valentine's Day. On Valentine's Day people greet loved ones, close friends, family members, and classmates by sending them cards called valentines. People also give candy, flowers, and other gifts to loved ones.

St. Patrick's Day is an annual feast day celebrating the patron saint the day is named after. St. Patrick's Day is the national holiday of Ireland and is usually celebrated on March 17. St. Patrick's Day has become a popular holiday in the United States. People wear green and eat corned beef and cabbage.

Thanksgiving is a national holiday in the United States, celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November. It originated as a harvest festival.

house to drive!

Nooruz is celebrated in spring, on March 21st, and marks the beginning of a new year. Traditionally the day started off with music, Tables are set with a white tablecloth and a spread of food, most prominent of which is sumolok.

Holidays are such a great opportunity to focus on bringing the family together.

Why is learning a foreign language is important: contact with people from all over the world, and HOLIDAYS all over the world help us to know about life and culture in these countries
